New Through ticketing – Yorkshire Dales

We have introduced new through-ticketing destinations in the Yorkshire Dales, improving connectivity between rail and local bus services and providing easier access to some of the more remote areas across our network. These new destinations are Hawes and Ingleton.

The products are available as joint rail and bus tickets from all Northern stations. Customers can purchase tickets from ticket offices, ticket vending machines (TVMs), on board Northern services, and online. The fare combines the rail ticket price with the applicable bus fare, which is currently £3 for a single journey and £6 for a return journey.

More information on each location can be seen below regarding the bus services and locations as well as the journey planner view at the end of the document.

Ingleton (NLC: L138, CRS: QIN)

Customers can choose from three different routeing options, allowing them to select the most convenient station for their onward bus connection to Ingleton. Interchange is available at Settle, Giggleswick, and Bentham stations. Bus services are integrated into journey planning systems and will appear in journey planners where available. Timetables for each connecting bus service can also be accessed using the links below.

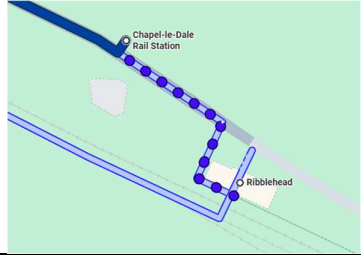

The table below shows the available connections to Ingleton from each station, along with the approximate journey time to the bus stop and the relevant timetable links.
